By Order of the
PROVOST and MAGISTRATES of DUNDEE.

THE inhabitants of Dundee, and the suburbs, are hereby informed, That every step is taking by them to guard against any chance of Scarcity, and that there is every reason to believe that there will be no want of Meal; at same time, if, on any pretext, the meal coming in to supply the market is stopped in the violent and illegal manner it has been, or the price, by any forcible means, lowered below the current market price, it will be impossible to secure a sufficiency to supply the market.

When every thing is thus to be done to secure plenty, the Magistrates are fully determined, that on the first appearance of any of these Riots and outrages which have disgraced this Town for these some days past, they will exert to the utmost, and without a moment's delay, the powers with which they are invested, to punish the guilty, and will give instant orders to the military to proceed to the last extremity with them.

After this warning, if any persons are found assembled on the streets, in the manner they have been, they must take the consequences;
